

My father and mother pray differently (“Aboin adein bebeinom zelotom”. This proverb is aimed at advising people to have similar view on important issues. Differences on crucial issues only bring harm)