

Eritrean community members residing in Houston City, USA, voiced readiness to demonstrate staunch resistance against anti-Eritrea agendas and back up the national development drive. They made the pledge at a meeting they conducted recently.

Asmara, 24 October 2012 – Eritrean community members residing in Houston City, USA, voiced readiness to demonstrate staunch resistance against anti-Eritrea agendas and back up the national development drive. They made the pledge at a meeting they conducted recently.

The citizens conducted extensive discussion as regards the nation's ongoing development programs, with more emphasis to the economic, educational and health systems. They also stated that the unjust sanctions against Eritrea would all end up in fiasco thanks to the Eritrean people's perseverance.

The participants of the meeting lauded the development accomplishments being registered in the Homeland.