

Eritrean youths and student citizens residing in Egypt voiced readiness to back up the national development drive.

Asmara, 12 November 2012 – Eritrean youths and student citizens residing in Egypt voiced readiness to back up the national development drive. They made the pledge at a seminar headed by Mr. Osman Mohammed-Omar, the Eritrean Ambassador to Egypt, during which he gave extensive briefings as regards the objective situation and development accomplishments in the Homeland.

Moreover, Mr. Osman said that Eritrea has attained a reliable stage of ensuring food security thanks to the policy of self-reliance it is pursuing, and called on the seminar participants to enhance participation in socio-economic and cultural activities in the Homeland.
