

Reports indicated that the Festival of Eritrean community members in Qatar continued today with patriotic spirit through the staging of different programs and activities.

Asmara, 16 November 2012 – Reports indicated that the Festival of Eritrean community members in Qatar continued today with patriotic spirit through the staging of different programs and activities. An exhibition depicting the Eritrean armed struggle for liberation, development activities in the Homeland, national endeavors towards ensuring social justice and the Eritrean culture as well as relics has drawn admiration from a number of visitors, according to reports.

A cultural performance by Salina Cultural Troupe is expected to add color to the event tonight, and a seminar on the objective situation in the Homeland would be conducted tomorrow.