

The Ministry of Labor and Human Welfare's branch in Forto-Sawa sub-zone extended support to needy students with a view to covering the expense of learning.

Forto-Sawa, 19 November 2012 – The Ministry of Labor and Human Welfare's branch in Forto-Sawa sub-zone extended support to needy students with a view to covering the expense of learning. The support was made in the form of cash and kind.

Among the beneficiaries, Halima Hamd, Nebai Teklai, Hagos Ismail and Rigbe Tesfai expressed satisfaction with the support, and said that they would work hard to score better result.

Mr. Desta Tesfai, head of the branch office, explained on his part that 30 beneficiaries of the scheme have each been provided with 330 Nakfa, while adequate learning materials have been distributed to 40 others.