

The Office of Police Force in Alebu sub-zone organized a seminar for the inhabitants of Alebu with a view to raising their awareness as regards law. Haikota, 28 November 2012 – The Office of Police Force in Alebu sub-zone organized a seminar for the inhabitants of Alebu with a view to raising their awareness as regards law.

Mr. Habte Gebrai, commander of the Police Force there, indicated that the office has been exerting endeavors to this end, and called on the participants to enhance collaboration with police members so as to ensure crime prevention. He further called on parents to play due role in bequeathing cultural values.

The participants of the seminar on their part voiced readiness to work hard for the realization of the cherished goal.