

Eritrean community members residing in Sweden voiced staunch resistance against external conspiracies and reiterated their pledge of backing the national development drive.

Asmara, 6 December 2012 – Eritrean community members residing in Sweden voiced staunch resistance against external conspiracies and reiterated their pledge of backing the national development drive. They made the pledge at a seminar during which Mr. Yonas Mana, Head of Embassy Affairs, gave briefings as regards the Second National Investment Conference due to be conducted from 17 to 18 this month and encouraged them to become beneficiaries of the new investment prospects.

The participants of the seminar expressed readiness to play supplemental role in national development endeavors.