

A seminar as regards hospitality and STDs has been conducted for taxi drivers in Asmara city. Accordingly, the participants of the seminar were called upon to demonstrate more gratifying sense of hospitality, besides enhancing their role in endeavors to combat sexually transmitted diseases

Asmara, 13 December 2012 – A seminar as regards hospitality and STDs has been conducted for taxi drivers in Asmara city. Accordingly, the participants of the seminar were called upon to demonstrate more gratifying sense of hospitality, besides enhancing their role in endeavors to combat sexually transmitted diseases.

The participants conducted extensive discussion as regards ways and means of reinforcing hospitality services, and called for the strengthening of integrated endeavors among stakeholders in the tourism environment.

Mr. Woldu Gebremariam, chairman of the Association of Taxi Drivers in the Central region, said that the seminar is vital in their career, and called on members to play due role to this end.