

The Eritrean community members residing in Bologna city and its environs expressed readiness to enhance support for families of fallen heroes.

Asmara, 14 December 2012 – The Eritrean community members residing in Bologna city and its environs expressed readiness to enhance support for families of fallen heroes. They reiterated their pledge at a meeting during which they extended financial support for 22 families of martyrs according to a promise they made in connection with Martyrs Day.

Moreover, the Eritrean community members expressed appreciation for the development accomplishments being registered in the Homeland, and said that they would step up participation in the national development drive. They also voiced staunch resistance against enemy conspiracies.