

Eritrean community members residing in Sheffield city, UK, demonstrated staunch resistance against external conspiracies at a meeting they conducted recently.

Asmara, 14 December 2012 – Eritrean community members residing in Sheffield city, UK, demonstrated staunch resistance against external conspiracies at a meeting they conducted recently.

Speaking at the meeting, the Eritrean Ambassador to the UK and North Ireland, Mr. Tesfamichael Gerahatu, gave extensive briefings as regards the objective situation in the Homeland vis-à-vis new investment prospects and government endeavors in ensuring sustainable economy. He further elucidated that the organizational capacity of Eritrean communities is growing in line with the experience acquired and integrated participation in state affairs.

Moreover, Ambassador Tesfamichael called on the community members to step up efforts towards reinforcing youth participation in youth conferences in the Homeland.