

The Eritrean community members residing in Las Vegas city, US, voiced staunch resistance against external conspiracies in connection with a seminar they conducted last week.

Asmara, 19 December 2012 – The Eritrean community members residing in Las Vegas city, US, voiced staunch resistance against external conspiracies in connection with a seminar they conducted last week. Stating that hostile attempts to sap Eritrea's development would end up in fiasco, they further expressed readiness to enhance participation in the integrated national endeavors as regards ensuring viable economy.

Moreover, the nationals lauded the government's commitment towards ensuring equitable distribution of resources among the citizenry vis-à-vis sustainable improvement of citizens' livelihood.

Mr. Isaac Abraham, chairman of the seminar's organizing committee, asserted that the Eritrean aspiration of nation-building has given rise to triumph thanks to the active role of nationals residing inside the country and abroad.