

The Eritrean community members residing in Manheim city and its environs, Germany, said that they would enhance support to the Eritrean National War-disabled Veterans Association (ENWVA).

Asmara, 21 December 2012 – The Eritrean community members residing in Manheim city and its environs, Germany, said that they would enhance support to the Eritrean National War-disabled Veterans Association (ENWVA). They made the pledge in connection with a fund-raising event conducted in connection with International Day of the Disabled.

The NUEW's branch in the city also joined the fund-raising initiative with a view to starting provision of medical supplies to ENWVA members. The event also witnessed participation of numerous German colleagues, according to reports.