

Eritrean community members in Israel have reiterated readiness to mount staunch resistance against anti-Eritrea agendas.

Asmara, 3 January 2013 – Eritrean community members in Israel have reiterated readiness to mount staunch resistance against anti-Eritrea agendas. They made the pledge at a seminar conducted last week during which it was stated that the Eritrean people and their leadership have registered significant development accomplishments over the past 20 years despite the continued acts of external conspiracy against the nation.

The Eritrean Ambassador to Israel, Mr. Tesfamariam Tekeste, indicated that the Homeland has reached a stage of promising economic progress, and called on the community members to make good use of the new investment prospects.

The participants of the seminar expressed satisfaction with the briefings.
