

President receives message from Chadian leader

Monday, 18 February 2013 10:56

President Isaias Afwerki today received message from the President of Chad, Idriss Déby, inviting him to take part in the African Green Belt Conference due to be held next March in Ndjamena, the country's capital.

Massawa, 18 February 2013 – President Isaias Afwerki today received message from the President of Chad, Idriss Déby, inviting him to take part in the African Green Belt Conference due to be held next March in Ndjamena, the country's capital.

In a meeting conducted in the port city of Massawa, President Isaias and Mr. Mahamat Bashir Okormi, Minister of Environment who delivered the message, exchanged views on bilateral relations.