

The Commander of the Police force in the Southern Red Sea region, Brig. General Adim Mohammed Kokol, called on students to raise their awareness regarding law and make increased contribution in preventing crimes.

Assab, 17 April 2010 - The Commander of the Police force in the Southern Red Sea region, Brig. General Adim Mohammed Kokol, called on students to raise their awareness regarding law and make increased contribution in preventing crimes.

In a meeting with students of Woldeab Woldemariam Junior School in Assab, he explained that a number of lectures were given to youth member with a view to nurturing disciplined youths who honor the trust of martyrs. Brig. General Adim further indicated that the lectures sought to enhance relations between students and the police, and thus play vital role in preventing crimes.

Calling on students to be free from any addictions, he stressed the need for the society to step up contribution as regards inculcating the nation's cherished values in the minds of the youth.