

The role of the newly inaugurated College of Arts and Social Sciences in Adi-Keih could not be viewed lightly in the development drive of the area, stated participants of the inauguration ceremony.     Adi-Keih, 11 June 2010 – The role of the newly inaugurated College of Arts and Social Sciences in Adi-Keih could not be viewed lightly in the development drive of the area, stated participants of the inauguration ceremony.

In their interview with ERINA, religious leader from Adi-Keih and Mr. Adem Osman from Kohaito emphasized the need for properly maintaining the college which was constructed at substantial cost, and called on the students to make proper use of the higher educational opportunity made available to them.

Pointing out that the college would enables students to get both theoretical and practical lessons, a lecture in the College, Mr. Habtom Embaye and Ms. Semira Jemal, inhabitant of Adi-Keih, expressed conviction that the college would register impressive achievement at national level.

Similarly, another participant on the occasion, Mr. Girmai Kiflom, said that the free educational opportunities made available to the students is not easily obtained in other countries, and reminded the students to promote their knowledge and serve their nation diligently.