

The children of martyrs in the Central region are leading a better life as a result of vocational training courses being provided by the Ministry of Labor and Human welfare. Asmara, 15 June 2010 – The children of martyrs in the Central region are leading a better life as a result of vocational training courses being provided by the Ministry of Labor and Human welfare.

The Ministry's branch in the region, in collaboration with various governmental and non-governmental institutions, is offering different training programs focusing on mechanics, metal and wood works, electronics, printing and others. Accordingly, about 155 children of fallen heroes received various types of training over the past 5 years.

The beneficiaries noted the significance of such training in upgrading their standard of living.