

Eritrean citizens residing in Germany are extending support to over 1,050 families of fallen heroes. They are extending such assistance through community-based device on top of their contributions at the individual level. Asmara, 17 June 2010 – Eritrean citizens residing in Germany are extending support to over 1,050 families of fallen heroes. They are extending such assistance through community-based device on top of their contributions at the individual level.

Accordingly, a total of 12,592 Euro contributed by the nationals in different German cities.

Likewise, Dr. Muller Rolf, a German friend of Eritrea, has decided to support 10 families of fallen heroes for the third time. Members of the NUEW branch in Germany too donated 11,000 Nakfa towards augmenting the Martyrs Trust Fund.