

The Administrator of the Anseba region, Mr. Giorgis Girmay stated during a work assessment meeting that efficient administration is vital for effective implementation of the integrated national resolute rebuff.

Keren, 17 July 2010 – The Administrator of the Anseba region, Mr. Giorgis Girmay stated during a work assessment meeting that efficient administration is vital for effective implementation of the integrated national resolute rebuff.

Stating that large-scale development projects are being implemented as part of substantial investments in the Anseba region this year, Mr. Giorgis emphasized the significance of efficient administration in all institutions and sectors so as to attain the desired goals.

During the meeting, reports of each branch office of ministries, organizations and commissions were presented and extensive discussions were conducted.

According to the reports presented, about 59,000 livestock received veterinary services and 33 area administrators have been elected, among others.

The participants on their part adopted a number of resolutions and recommendations regarding various issues.